

2013 Summer School Papers in Arts Education

ALED 225- 2013 Dance and Education

This paper covers increasing dance knowledge and understanding of dance in educational contexts through creative and performative experiences as well as improving dance skill level. We focus on embracing current dance education practices through practical work and guided inquiry.

Dates: Monday 7 to Friday 11 and Monday 14 to Friday 18 January, 9.30am - 3.30pm daily. (All the assessment is completed during the paper and within a week after the paper is completed).

Venue: Baptist Church hall, 640 Cameron Road, Tauranga.

Lecturer: Sue Cheesman Class limit: 30

ALED200 - Exploring Visual Arts Media for Educational contexts

Students will be working individually and collaboratively in Clay producing a variety of hand-built projects adaptable to classroom settings. Themes, products and processes used will be documented and commented on as a reflective journal.

Dates: Monday 7 to Friday 11 and Monday 14 to Friday 18 January 9am - 4pm daily. (Follow up independent work due Monday 27 January).

Venue: Hamilton Campus: Ceramics studio below the gym, opposite swimming pool.

TEAL 226 – Introduction to Drama in Educational Contexts

Students will be introduced to a range of different approaches to the teaching of drama in the classroom, including socio-dramatic play, movement, reader's theatre, process drama and Mantle of the Expert. Through a series of practical workshops, participants will experience and explore the underpinning philosophies of each approach and learn some key teaching strategies. Students will document their learning in a reflective journal and produce an original unit plan in drama.

Dates: Monday 7 to Friday 11 and Monday 14 to Friday 18 January 9am - 4pm daily. (Follow up independent work due Monday 27 January).

Venue: Hamilton Campus, Academy of Performing Arts

Lecturer: Dr. Viv Aitken Class limit: 25
